Part 1 – Leadership Essentials

In this first module we will begin by exploring just what is meant by leadership, why it is useful and the relationship leaders have with followers. The aim of this first module is to set the scene for practical work that participants will undertake between modules.

Key Topics:

Leadership role in change – Why leadership... Why now? A look at the role that leadership plays in our professional lives, as well as the environmental context that makes it increasingly necessary. The role that leaders play in change.

Traits, Skills and Behaviours – What can we apply to our own professional lives? How will leadership change things? How will we know?

Leadership strategy and execution – Preparing ourselves for re-entry. Setting realistic goals, creating a leadership strategy and setting ourselves up for success.

Part 2 – Advanced Leadership

The aim of this module is to consolidate learning that has taken place and supplement it with new techniques, suggestions and practice.

We will explore and practice the following skills:

- The 'art' of influencing
- Engaging commitment and
- Creating powerful networks

Key topics:

Influencing others – The science of persuasion. Why leaders need to be good influencers? The power of reciprocity and trust in the organization?

Engaging commitment and resilience – Lessons learnt for leadership – What have we learned about how leadership works? What could we be doing differently? Resilience – How do we keep ourselves fit, focused and fulfilled?

Power of networking – Networks of the curious and the co-operative – The power of reciprocity and infectious enthusiasm.
